Sale Layout:

- Sale order is determined by the allotment table, with highest sellers from previous years selling first
- Whiteface Rams will be auctioned first
- Suffolk Yearling Rams:
 - If entering Suffolk Yearlings, previous consignors must enter a pen of 2 in the first round.
 - The second round will be from both previous consignors and new consignors in pens of 1-5
 - The third round will be pens of 1 studs from previous consignors
 - The fourth round will be from previous consignors in pens of 1-5
- Blackface breeds and blackface crossbred breeds yearlings will follow Suffolk Yearling Rams. Suffolk Ram Lambs will sell last.

To consign rams at the 103rd Idaho State Ram Sale, please review the enclosed packet, and return a completed entry form with your fees.

Entry form must be postmarked by Wednesday April 17th, 2024, for consideration.

Allotments are per consignor, not per breed. Consignors can allocate their allotment number how they see fit across multiple breeds if desired. Allotments are calculated according to the 2023 previous earned allotment and the 2023 average price, as listed in the Rules and Terms of Consignment, NOT by the number of head allowed by the Ram Sale committee. The numbers listed on the enclosed allotment chart are your earned allotments. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the allotment chart, please call the office at 208-344-2271 or Liz's cell phone at 509-595-0169.

New Consignors are allowed up to five (5) rams. The ram sale committee reserves the right to allow as few as 0 – 5 head for new consignors.

If a consignor wishes to consign more rams than allowed by their allotment, they should put them on the entry form. The Ram Sale Committee will consider their request and make any decisions on allowances the meeting.

The Ram Sale Committee may determine how many head are allowed based on the current market year, the past year sales, and the number of entries. This will allow the number of head to include fewer or greater numbers than in past years.

The Idaho Wool Growers Association Ram Sale Committee will meet the week of April 22, 2024. All decisions regarding entries will be made at that time. The agenda will allow potential consignors to address the committee. The details of the meeting will be released before April 17th, 2024.

Thank you for your continued support through consignment of high-quality rams!

Best regards,

John Noh
Ram Sale Committee Chair
